

VACATIONING WITH GEO AT LORYMA RESORT HOTEL

The Loryma Resort Hotel is located in Turunc in the South Aegean region of Turkey. Previously only reachable by water, this community is considered one of the country's best kept secrets with its beautiful beach, stunning natural scenery, and handful of quaint shops and restaurants. Nestled in the hills above Turunc Bay, it offers an ideal setting for majestic views of the pine covered mountains and glistening bay waters. This delightful low rise property is surrounded by lush peaceful gardens and has been built with regional elements and materials.

With the busy tourism centre of Marmaris only 40 minutes away and Icmeler only 20 minutes away, the village of Turunc has managed to maintain much of its traditional character and charm. This area has been home to settlements from Hellenistic to Byzantine times and traces of these bygone civilizations can still be seen in the beautiful bays, forest and mountain villages, classical ruins, and other historical treasures.

A continuous light breeze combined with warm temperatures, invigorating air, and virtually no humidity creates an attractive climate to visitors and residents alike. Turunc and the surrounding area offer an abundance of land and water activities, and organized tours that will allow you to fully explore the local sites and culture. Vacationing at the Loryma Resort Hotel will be a unique holiday that has a perfect blend of history, culture, adventure, and relaxation.
